DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Carter et al, U.S. Patent No. 6,017,994.

Carter et al, U.S. Patent No. 6,017,994, discloses a water soluble polymer having pendant derivatized amide functionalities for scale inhibition (see abstract). It is further taught by Carter et al that suitable polymers include copolymers of the monomer of formula I and acrylic acid (see col. 3, line 5-col. 4, line 14), wherein R₁ is hydrogen, R₂ and R₃ are hydrogen or C₁₋₃ alkyl, Het¹ and Het² are oxygen, R₄ is hydrogen, p and q are integers of 1-10, and R_5 and R_6 are hydrogen or a carboxylate group (see col. 3, lines 10-31). Carter et al further discloses that the molecular weight of the polymer is 5,000 to 100,000 (see col. 6, lines 54-62), that the polymer is used in an amount of 0.5-500 ppm (see col. 8, lines 16-21), and that the composition further contains adjunct ingredients, such as biocides (see col. 7, lines 25-30), other polymeric treating agents (see col. 7, lines 53-57), and water (see col. 8, lines 6-15), per the requirements of the instant invention. Specifically, note Examples 1-13. Therefore, instant claims 1-9 are anticipated by Carter et al, U.S. Patent No. 6,017,994.

In the alternative that the above disclosure is insufficient to anticipate the above listed claims, it would have nonetheless been obvious to the skilled artisan to produce the claimed composition, as the reference teaches each of the claimed ingredients within the claimed proportions for the same utility.
